

PERAWATAN LUKA TEKNIK BALUTAN MOIST WOUND HEALING PADA PENYEMBUHAN ULKUS DIABETIK TIPE-2

Siska Devi Fitriana, Hermawati, S.Pd.,S.Kep.,Ns.,M.Kep, Endah Sri Wahyuni,
S.Kep.,Ns.,M.Kep

Devisiska454@gmail.com

Universitas 'Aisyiyah Surakarta

Essence

Background; International Diabetes Federation (IDF) 2011 the number of diabetics has increased from 366 million sufferers to 552 million sufferers by 2030. IDF survey results in 2018 Southeast Asia ranked 3rd after North America and North Africa. In Indonesia in 2017 the number of Diabetic Mellitus (DM) patients was 10.3 million. The prevalence of DM in Central Java diagnosed by doctors is 2.1%. Objectives; The purpose of making this video is to explain how to care for wound healing techniques in the healing of type-2 diabetic ulcers. With this created media is expected to be used as a medium of education or health education in the public especially in health workers, health students, and the general public in order to know the modern methods of dressing the treatment of wound ulcer DM. Method; The method used is to use video media is expected to be used as a source of information about wound care techniques for moist wound healing in diabetic ulcer healing type-2. Results; The video will be in HKI kan at the University of Surakarta 'Aisyiyah and especially to people with type-2 diabetes mellitus so that they can know and apply the method of wound treatment technique of moist wound healing to the healing of type-2 diabetes ulcers. Conclusion; as a health education media and educational media for the general public and health workers as well as health students, especially patients with type-2 DM ulcers to increase knowledge about wound care procedures moist wound healing techniques

Keywords : Diabetes Mellitus, Moist Wound Healing, video