

FOREST FIRE MITIGATION AGAINST PEOPLE WITH MEDIA OUTLETS

Farisah Lisya Azizah

farisahlisyaazizah@gmail.com

Universitas 'Aisyiyah Surakarta

SUMMARY

Background: Data of forest fire from the national aid bencana (BNPB) show that Indonesia's 2018-2019 housing and park fires reached 422 cases of domestic, forest and land fires, while not causing any loss of life but also felt by people in both economic and social terms. In Indonesia in 2019, until September, forest and land fires in Indonesia reached 857,756 acres [857,756 ha]. Central Java province 2016-2020 states that in the district the train caused a 7,809 ha (7.809 ha) fire disaster with class hazard. A total known potential danger in central Java is 664.838ha. This can be prevented by conferring communication, information, and education (kie) mitigation of the fire disaster. Method: use corel draw to make a distinctive design to look more attractive. Results: the scientific project "forest fire mitigation" project. Conclusion: agony is used with a view to increasing knowledge and providing more specific information. It may be concluded that these media outlets can provide information to improve their knowledge of fire disaster mitigation.

Keywords: mitigation, fire, bribery

