

OVERVIEW OF ADOLESCENT KNOWLEDGE LEVEL ABOUT BULLYING AT SMPN 1 SIDOHARJO

Nadia Sulisti Azizah

Sri Hartutik

nadia.student@aiska-university.ac.id

Universitas 'Aisyiyah Surakarta

ABSTRACT

Background: Cases of victims of violence are motivated by various factors such as the influence of technology, environment, socio-culture, low quality of parental care. Bullying behavior is caused by the ignorance of adolescents and parents and schools, to see bullying, the more adolescents know about bullying, the lower the prevalence of bullying among adolescents. The KPAI 2022 report showed that the number of complaints related to child protection clusters was 2,982 cases, namely first, children of physical and psychological violence reached 1,138 cases, the second case of sexual crimes 859 cases, the third child victims of pornography and cybercrime 345 cases, said to be an incident of bullying among children under age. Objective : to find out how the level of knowledge of adolescents about bullying. Research method : quantitative descriptive. The research instrument used a bullying knowledge level questionnaire. A sample of 94 respondents. In this study, univariate analysis was carried out in the form of frequency distribution using SPSS. Frequency distribution of respondents (Age, Gender). Results : the results of the study found that the level of knowledge of adolescents about bullying at SMPN 1 Sidoharjo almost all students had knowledge with a good category, which was 85 people or 90,4% while the remaining 9 people (9,6%) in the sufficient category, in this study there was not a single student with a less category. Conclusion : Overview of adolescent knowledge level about bullying at SMPN 1 Sidoharjo the majority of respondents are in the good category.

Keywords: Bullying, Teens, Knowledge Level

