SUMMARY

Background: Fires can occur anywhere, be it forest, urban, residential or in office buildings. Based on data from the National Disaster Management Agency (BNPB), there were 1336 cases of residential fires that occurred in Indonesia from 2011-2018. For 2020 the DKI Jakarta Provincial Fire and Rescue Service recorded 243 fires or an average of 4 fires per day. According to the Central Java BPBD in January-April 2018 the number of fire incidents reached 58 incidents with a total loss of 2.16 billion rupiah. To prevent and cope with fires, community preparedness is needed in facing fires. Method: With the media in the form of a pocket book, Ready to Face Fire, Make Fire as a Friend as an educational medium to provide information and improve fire preparedness. Result: Output in the form of a pocket book, Ready to Face Fire, Make Fire as a Friend, hopefully it can be used as a guide and can be applied by the community in dealing with fires. Conclusion: The pocket book media Ready to Face Fire, Make Fire as a Friend, is arranged in an interesting and easy to understand to improve community preparedness in facing fires.
