

SUMMARY

Background; Natural disasters in the world occurred 830 disasters with 143 dead and missing, 266 injured and 199,859 affected and displaced. There were 1,312 natural disasters in Indonesia in 2010 - 2019. There were 555 flood incidents. Meanwhile, the number of natural disasters in Central Java in 2010 - 2019 was 420. Natural disasters that often occur are floods of 74 events. Mitigation is a step taken to reduce the scale risk of a future disaster, both the effect and the range of the conditions of the disaster itself. Method; The IEC output method used is in the form of a pocket book media containing flood disaster mitigation efforts in disaster-prone areas for the community. Result; The output of this Final Project is in the form of a pocket book media entitled Flood Disaster Mitigation Efforts in Disaster Prone Areas for the Community. Conclusion; Handbook media "Flood Prevention Measures". This pocket book is expected to provide information and insights, especially for the community about flood disaster mitigation efforts in disaster-prone areas.

Keywords : Flood, Disaster Mitigation, Pocket Book