

SUMMARY

EDUCATION OF COMMUNITY PREPAREDNESS IN FACING FLOOD DISASTER AS AN EFFORT TO INCREASE KNOWLEDGE THROUGH VIDEO MEDIA

Ika Putri Damayanti<sup>1</sup>, Fida' Husain<sup>2</sup>

damayantiika@gmail.com

University `Aisyiyah Surakarta

Background: Flood is a natural disaster that occurs as a result of an overflow of stagnant water where water exceeds the normal capacity on land which is usually dry and overflows. Floods can cause communicable diseases including diarrhea, leptospirosis, acute respiratory infections (ARI), skin diseases, gastrointestinal diseases, typhoid, and dengue fever or malaria. The resulting impact caused 522 people died and went missing, 3.05 million people were displaced and suffered, 69,287 houses were damaged of which 9,171 were seriously damaged, 13,077 were moderately damaged, 47,039 were slightly damaged, and 2,311 public facilities were damaged. Method: Using video animation media entitled "Let's Get to Know Flood Preparedness Closer". Objective : to educate the public about preparedness in dealing with flood disasters, is beneficial for various parties. Results: Project yang dihasilkan berupa media video sebagai media informasi dan edukasi kesiapsiagaan masyarakat dalam menghadapi bencana banjir. Conclusion: This video is expected to be useful for the community as an information medium, especially for people affected by floods to carry out preparedness and minimize losses.

Keywords: Education, Preparedness, Flood