

EFFORTS TO IMPROVE PREPAREDNESS KNOWLEDGE ELEMENTARY SCHOOL STUDENTS IN FACING TSUNAMI DISASTER THROUGH VIDEO MEDIA

Hesti Janatunnisa¹, Erika Dewi Noorratri²
hestijanatunnisa@gmail.com
Universitas 'Aisyiyah Surakarta

SUMMARY

Background; The tsunami of December 22, 2018 in the sunda strait caused many deaths. BNPB recorded until January 14, 2019, totaling 437 dead, 10 missing, 31,943 injured, and 16,198 displaced. The tsunami disaster claimed many lives especially of children. Elementary school students are one of the most vulnerable groups in the area prone to tsunami disasters that need attention. Preparedness is part of a disaster relief process and an essential part of disaster risk reduction activities. Therefore, to enhance awareness associated with preparedness can be done by educating via video media. The objectives of the research; As information media to increase knowledge on the preparedness of the tsunami disaster. Methods; Expose kie videos for education to inform elementary school students about the tsunami disaster preparedness. Result; An animated video titled "come on tsunami standby" has been run by 06.00 minutes and file size 177 MB. Summary; The animated video entitled "come on standby for a tsunami" can be used asa primary school student media education on tsunami disaster preparedness.

Keywords; Education, tsunami, preparedness, video