

EFFORTS TO INCREASE KNOWLEDGE ABOUT TELEMEDICINE TO HOUSEWIVES THROUGH VIDEO MEDIA

Anggun Dhipa Putri<sup>1</sup>, Winda Azmi Meisari<sup>2</sup>

anggundhipa@gmail.com

Universitas 'Aisyiyah Surakarta

SUMMARY

Background; Telemedicine is an online health service that can be accessed through various communication devices connected to the internet network. however, in practice it was found that 58.2% of respondents did not know about telemedicine involving 254,817 respondents. in 2021 it was recorded that 95.11% had never used telemedicine health services for reasons (20.94%) did not know about telemedicine, (56.25%) preferred direct health, and (22.57%) felt unnecessary. Increasing knowledge related to Telemedicine can be done by providing education through video media to housewives as a preventive measure in dealing with family health conditions. Objective; As an information media to increase knowledge in housewives about Telemedicine. Method; Preparation of daily drama and animated videos using the renderforest application that creates images and descriptions about Telemedicine. Results; The output is an animated video entitled "Let's Get to Know More About Telemedicine" with a duration of 06.46 minutes and a file size of 142.21 MB. It has been tested on 5 housewife respondents with the results of the video being interesting and easy to understand. Conclusion; An animated video entitled "Let's Get Closer to Telemedicine" can be used as an educational media about Telemedicine.

Keywords; Telemedicine, Knowledge Improvement, Animated Video